COMPETITION RULES

WORDS OF WELCOME

Sergey Soloveychik
President
European Judo Union

Dear Judo Friends,

On behalf of the European Judo Union I would like to warmly welcome you to Hungary for the Veteran European Judo Championships. Every year the popularity of judo events for veterans grows and the number of competitors in this age group increases. This fact illustrates our motto and proves that judo is more than sport and it is for all - once one has started his or her way on the tatami, one can continue practicing and performing judo skills throughout one's life, keeping physical and mental health, maintaining lifelong friends.

The Hungarian Judo Association is an experienced and a dedicated organiser of judo events, so I am sure that the participants and spectators will be able to take an advantage of all the attractions and resort facilities that Balatonfüred has to offer.

I extend our gratitude to the Organising Committee and I wish tremendous success to everyone involved in this important event, may it be an unforgettable experience and a festive showcase of judo.

Laszlo Toth
President
Hungarian Judo Association

Dear Judo Friends,

On behalf of the Hungarian Judo Association I would like to welcome all participants: the athletes, officials, guests, and judo friends from all around Europe to the Veteran European Judo Championships 2015.

The Hungarian Judo Association is very proud to host this outstanding event in Balatonfüred.

We had to honor to host the Grand Masters and Kata World Championships in Budapest in 2010. Five years ago we organized Championships for the Grand Masters of the World and now we would welcome the best veteran judokas of the Continent. In regard to the city of this event it opens the door besides the sports itself to spend a long weekend on the coast of „Hungarian Sea”. Do not forget that Judo is more than Sport.

I wish a memorable and very spectacular competition and all the best to the participants!
